

“P.S. What I wanted to tell you about was riding down the shadow of the eclipse with Ariel, telling the little birds not to be afraid...”

Kingfisher Days

by Susan Coyne
directed by Carolyn Wilson

“This is the story of a remarkable friendship, which began when I was five years old, and has nourished me all my life,” writes Susan Coyne in her memoir of summer, 1963, when she and her elderly neighbour were infatuated with an exiled and delightfully self-absorbed fairy princess.

Jan. 23, 24, 25 (3 pm*),
28, 29, 30, 31, 2009
8:00 p.m.

* Jan. 25 at 3 pm will benefit Friends of the Oshawa Library and includes a Sunday roast dinner at the Gallery Café. Enjoy a meal at 1 pm or 5:30 pm. Subscribers may choose this date. Call Judith Edmondson at 905 725-7127 for prices and reservations. A charitable tax receipt will be issued.

Oshawa Arts Resource Centre www.durhamshoestring.org
45 Queen St., Oshawa, Ontario