Sometimes Uptown & Sometimes the East End

From the Director (with a little help from her playlist):

You can't always get what you want. I see your true colours shining through and that's why I love you. So don't be afraid to let them show. Money, it's a crime. Share it fairly but don't take a slice of my pie. I want to live the real life, close to the bone. Hello city, you've found an enemy in me. Big time, I'm on my own; I'm making it. There's a reason why I love this town. When you're alone and life is making you lonely, you can always go downtown. One man does his work; he's not satisfied at all. Feels like he is being used; his self-respect starts to fall. It's hard times for an honest man. Somewhere over the rainbow, way up high, are the dreams that you dreamed of.
